

FISCAL NOTE

HB 643 - SB 626

March 11, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Directs the State Board of Education and the Department of Education to develop a plan for repealing the rules and regulations that prevent parents from making certain decisions about their children's education. The plan must also address greater school choice within the LEA. The plan must be presented to the members of the House and Senate Education Committees by January 15, 2006.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – $2,000 One-Time

Assumption:

- The Department of Education would incur costs to convene a working group, conduct meetings and develop the plan.
